Howell proposed as a substitute one of the plans submitted by the Republican national committee which provided for four delegates at large from each state and one delegate in addition for each 10,000 voters or major fraction thereof cast for the Republican candidate for presidential electors in 1908. This plan would reduce Southern representation to 119 dele gates.

Howell was opposed by Senator Borah, former Governor Hadley, holding the Louisiana proxy; Committeemen Remmell of Arkansas and Mo-Gregor of Texas and H. L.
